F Numb. 164.

The Daily Courant.

Monday, October 26. 1702.

From the Harlem Courant, dated Oct. 24.

Hague, October 23.

COunt Goes has receiv'd Advice of the Action at Fridlingen, that Prince Lewis of Baden won the Field with the Loſs of 2000 Men; that the French loſt above 4000; and that General Dopf was in the Battle. We are in daily expectation of the Particulars.

From the Harlem Courant, dated Oct. 28.

Frankfort, October 22. The News of the Defeat of the French near Fridlingen is confirm'd by an Expreſs, viz. That in the beginning of the Action, the Swabian Horſe falling into Diſorder, the Imperialiſts loſt 18 or 20 Standards and 2000 Men, among them the Generals Furſtemburg and Hohenzollern, and other Officers; but that afterwards they recover'd all but 3 of their Standards again, and took 18 Colours and 6 Pieces of Cannon from the Enemy, won the Field, and drove them over the Rhine. And adds that the Fight began at 6 in the Morning and laſted till Evening.

Beſides theſe 2 Articles, and what we gave in our laſt Courant, there is not a word more of this Matter, on the ſide of the Imperialiſts, in all the Forreign Papers. What follows, being added to the Paris Article in the ſame Courant, compleats the French Account of it.

From the Paris Gazette a la main, dated Oct. 23.

Paris, October 23. The Marqueſs de Villars, ſince the Battle near Fridlingen, poſſeſs'd himſelf of a Caſtle, in which were 30 Pieces of Cannon 20 of them Braſs; The Garriſon of 200 Men were made Priſoners. He has ſent Advice to the King that he has detach'd 3000 Horſe to joyn the Troops of the Elector of Bavaria, being well inform'd that the Prince of Baden has not rallied together above 4000 Horſe, and ſo is not in a Condition to prevent them. There are likewiſe found 7 Pieces of Cannon which the Enemy had not time, in their retreat, to carry off. They left ſeveral of their wounded in the Villages, among them 2 Officers of Note. The King has made the Marqueſs de Villars a Marſhal of France, and Captain of his Guards in the room of the Marſhal de Lorges, who was lately cut for the Stone by the famous Friar Jacques, and died of the Operation. His Majeſty has given the Count de Choiſeul who brought the firſt News of this Victory 10000 Livres, the Regiment of the Chevalier de Sevre who was kill'd in the Action, and leave to diſpoſe of his own Company. On Sunday laſt Te Deum was Sung in the King's Chappel on this Occaſion.

From the Harlem Courant, dated October 24.

Frankfort, October 18. 'Tis advis'd from Alſatia, that Marſhal Catinat, having ſtrengthen'd the Garriſon of Strasbourg with ſome Foot and Horſe, was mov'd towards New Briſac. The Imperialiſts continue encamp'd at Biſweiler. They write from Frankfort of the 24th, That ſome Regiments of Foot and Horſe were detach'd from Biſweiler towards the Upper Rhine.

From the Paris Letter a la main, dated Oct. 23.

Marſhal Catinat has Orders to return to Court, with the Grand Prior, and Monſieur de Bertillac who ſerve under him as Lieutenant Generals.

From the Paris Gazette, dated October 24.

Madrid, October 5. On the 27th Ult. a Courier brought Advice of the Arrival of the Galleons in Vigo, upon which the Sieur Renau, who formerly repair'd the Fortifications of Vigo, was ſent thither to provide for the Security of that Port. The Queen has nam'd Don John de Larrea Councellor of the Chamber of the Indies to receive the Plate Fleet, and has given him the neceſſary Inſtructions for diſcovering the Effects belonging to Forreign Nations.

From the Paris Gazette a la main, dated Oct. 21.

'Tis ſaid there are but 42 Millions of Livres come by the Galleons, and that their Cargo had been more conſiderable, but that the Merchants at Vera Cruz would ſend but half their Lading, becauſe they ſaw but 4 Ships of Monſ. de Chateaurenaud's Squadron in their Harbour, and did not believe there were 20 more at the Havana. The King has given 6000 Livres to the Lieutenant of a Man of War who brought the News of the Arrival of this Fleet.

The Count de Tholouſe arriv'd at Thoulon on the 12th inſtant, where he found Orders to keep all his Men on board and his Ships ready to go out again. Whence we conjecture that he is to put to Sea with 11 other Men of War that lye ready in that Harbour, to joyn the Squadron of Count Chateaurenaud and come all together into Breſt. 'Tis confirm'd that the Amirante of Caſtille is arriv'd at Lisbon, with 300 Officers in his Retinue.

From the Harlem Courant, dated Oct. 28.

Weſel, Oct. 24. This Evening came Advice that 8000 Men, moſt Pruſſians, are ſet down before Rhinberg, and are raiſing Batteries of Cannon and Mortars.

From the Amſterdam Courant, dated Oct. 28.

Weſel. October 25. The Commander in Rhinberg plyes the Pruſſians inceſſantly with his Cannon and Mortars. Their Batteries will be ready to day at noon to anſwer him. According to the Report of 3 Deſerters the Garriſon conſiſts of 1200 able Men.

From the Harlem Courant, dated October 26.

Hamburg, October 20. 'Tis advis'd, That as the King of Sweden was exerciſing 2 Troops of Poliſh Horſe that were new rais'd, and riding full Gallop before them into his Camp, his Horſe tript at the Stake of a Tent, came over with him, and broke his Majeſty's Thigh; but he is in a fair way of Recovery.

Ratisbon, Oct. 19. On Sunday in the Evening Cardinal Lamberg went from hence for Paſſaw, tho' ſome ſuppoſe he is gone to the Elector of Bavaria to endeavour by his Mediation to prevail with him to alter his Reſolutions.

Liege, Oct. 23. Yeſterday the Earl of Athlone receiv'd Advice of the States having choſen him Velt Marſhal of their Forces, before the Death of the Prince of Naſſau Saarbruk (who dyed at Ruremond on the 17th) was known.

'Tis ſaid Monſieur d'Auverquerque will have the Government of Bolduc, vacant by the Deceaſe of the Prince of Naſſau Saarbruk.

The Earl of Winchelſea, Envoy from the Queen of England to the Court of Hannover, will continue at the Hague till my Lord Marlborough returns thither.

All the Advices from the Armies in Italy ſhall be in our Next.
